

Humanities Overview Autumn Term 2018

This term, the children at Sladefield celebrated Black History Month. The children looked at a different significant personality of ethnic origin in each class.

As part of our Black History celebrations, every class looked at the lives of their chosen personality and why they were important. Every class made a display and investigated and learned about the countries the people were from.

Reception

In Reception, the children looked at Rosa Parks, Martin Luther King, Muhammad Ali and Mae Jemison. During this topic, the children learned about America and found out about their food, music, their flag and the Native Americans.
