

Mr Meadows' Welcome

Children in Need

We all had a great time on Friday raising money for Children in Need. The children had a great time decorating their Pudsey biscuits and enjoyed showing off their class dances in Year Groups. A big 'Thank You!' to all of the parents who came to the cake sale at the end of the school day - we hope you enjoyed a treat over the weekend! If you managed to catch any of the BBC footage on Friday, you'll be well aware of the importance of this fundraising event, and the great work that can take place because of the donations made by people like you! We are extremely pleased to announce that we raised £420 at Sladefield - this is brilliant! Again, 'Thank You!'

E-Safety & NSPCC

Mrs Connolly has recently been sending a number of tweets regarding ways in which you can ensure that your child is safe online. If you are not on Twitter, or you don't follow our page, then it would be a great time for you to sign up and start following us! You'll find us on @SladefieldInfSc - if you'd like any help in setting up a Twitter account, please speak with Mrs Connolly who will happily show you the ropes!

Here's some other Online Safety and NSPCC information that you might find useful and interesting:

Online Safety Ice Breakers - parents can sign up to the NSPCC and o2 six-weekly Ice Breaker emails which are packed with advice and tools to help you to talk to your child about staying safe online. Find out more at nspcc.o2.co.uk

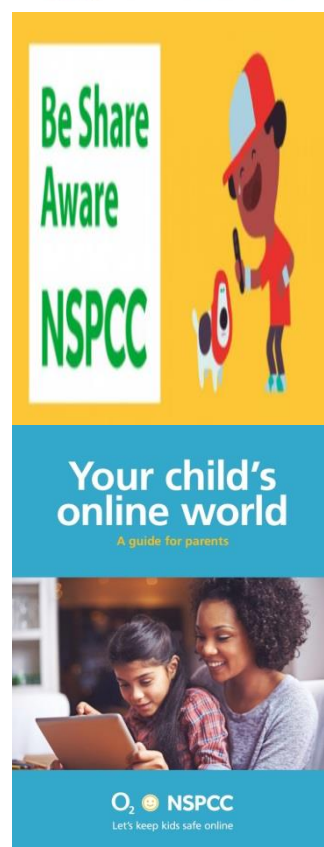

Share Aware - NSPCC's online safety campaign, which is a great resource to help parents keep their children safe on apps and games. Visit nspcc.org.uk/shareaware

Net Aware - an online tool that informs parents about the most popular sites, apps and games that children can use. NSPCC asked children and parents about the frequency of seeing inappropriate content, how easy it is to find and change their privacy settings. The site is regularly updated, and parents can sign up to an Online Safety newsletter to keep up-to-date with digital trends. Visit net-aware.org.uk

Need-to-know guides - the NSPCC has created a series of guides for parents and carers covering a range of issues, including holding babies safely, and spotting signs of neglect. They are downloadable and free of charge, and can be found from nspcc.org.uk/leaflets.

Bamville Road Closure

PLEASE BE AWARE that Bamville Road will be closed between houses 47 and 66 next week from Monday to Wednesday, meaning access to the school site will be restricted. Please bear this in mind when bringing and collecting your child from school - please factor this into your travel plans so that your child is on time for school still.

Attendance

What a great week in terms of attendance! 9/12 classes have attendance last week of 97% or over, which is excellent to see! A big 'Thank You!' to all of the parents and carers of the children in the school for ensuring their child has attended school so regularly!

A particular 'CONGRATULATIONS!' needs to be given to Class 1 - 100% attendance is EPIC! Mrs Azar is extremely proud of her class!

Here's a breakdown of the percentages:

Whole School - 97.6%

Reception - 97.03%

Year 1 - 98.58%

Year 2 - 97.1%

Key Stage 1 - 97.84%

It's been great to see so many face-painted Reception children also - they might be a winner if they come to school every day the previous week...

HOMEWORK CHALLENGE!

As we will be holding Anti-Bullying Week next week at Sladefield, this week's challenge is for you to work together to produce a piece of work linked to Anti-Bullying.

Perhaps you could create a poster that we could put around the school? Maybe you could write an Anti-Bullying song or poem that we could share in the Celebration Assembly and on the school website?

Please hand any Anti-Bullying challenges into your child's class teacher with your child's name on it, by next Monday. All entries will earn 10 Dojos!!
